

Mini Camp Instructors

Tom Graves is the owner and head instructor at Port Orchard Kenpo Karate in Washington State and the School has been in business for over 19 years. He has 36 years of martial arts experience and earned his 8th Degree Black Belt from Master John Sepulveda. He has won numerous US Grand Champion Titles, and has had the opportunity to compete and spar against fighters such as Billy Blanks and Chip Wright. He was also the European International fighting champion 3 times. He always considers himself a student of the art and strives to be an "Engineer of Motion" or, as he likes to put it a "Motion Hoarder"

Lou T. Donadio a 7th Degree Black Belt began his study of American Kenpo Karate in Spokane, WA while serving in the U.S. Air Force. He also holds a First Degree Black Belt in Tae Kwon Do and the equivalent of a Black Belt rank in Escrima. Mr. Donadio spent over 3 years developing his teaching skills in the U.S.A.F. as a Survival Instructor, teaching air crew members how to survive. He began teaching Karate professionally in 1993. It is his desire to build a strong community by helping students achieve their full potential in Life and the Martial Arts!

Chris Tanaka is the owner and head instructor of Sher Khan Karate in Elk Grove, CA. He is a 5th Degree Black Belt and has been a martial arts enthusiast for most of his life. He began training in martial arts in 1986 at the age of 5. In 1995 he began his journey in Kenpo and began training privately with Master John Sepulveda in 2000. Mr. Tanaka is always working towards improving upon his knowledge of Kenpo and has dedicated his life to helping others in their knowledge of self-defense.
